THE BACK PAGE

We are not Christians only on Sundays or only on Wednesdays. Our status as “child of God” transcends all other vocations in this life. We are Christians before all else—before being a husband or wife, father or mother, employee, or student. In a world that is turned away from God, fighting a devil and a sinful flesh that want us to turn away from God, the importance of feeding, nurturing, and growing the Christian faith cannot be overstated.

With this in mind, we are excited to offer more opportunities for worship and Bible Study at Faith during the week. We offer our hearty encouragement and exhortation to join us for as many of these offerings as possible. Simply put, your faith should be your number one priority. We offer these opportunities because we Christians need them. We need to receive God’s gifts in Word and Sacrament worship. We need to read and study the Word of God. We need to spend time in fellowship with other believers. We need to be salt and light in the world. In other words, we as Christians engage in worship, Bible study, and fellowship because we need it, our fellow believers need it, and our unbelieving neighbors need it, too. A full weekly schedule follows. Join us, and invite others to join us, too!
